AFTER THE FIRE USA

GIVING TUESDAY

Hello Friends, Partners, and Supporters

We hope that the holiday season finds you safe and gathering around the people you care for the most!

Today is an amazing day for non-profits around the world. Giving Tuesday is part of a week that sees individuals support causes they love more than any other throughout the year. As you look to give thanks in different ways this year, we ask that you consider financially supporting programs and organizations that are near and dear to your heart. Many non-profits count on your support to fulfill their missions. If your giving happens to align with our mission of supporting communities navigating wildfire, then please consider supporting our work. If a financial contribution to your favorite cause is out of reach this year, we encourage you to look at our Donation page about scheduling smaller donations for every month throughout the year.

Finally, just know that we are grateful for you!

Jennifer, Charles and the entire team at After the Fire.

*Charles Brooks, COO and Jennifer Gray Thompson, CEO,
After The Fire: Recover. Rebuild. Reimagine.*
